

South Korea Mission

Why South Korea?

- U.S. exports to Korea totaled $44.5 billion in 2014, making up 8.6 percent of all Korean imports.
- 80 percent of U.S. industrial goods exported to the country are tariff-free because of the Korea-U.S. Free Trade Agreement (KORUS).
- Korea is the United States' seventh-largest export market.

This Exciting Trade Mission Includes:

- Business meetings with distributors, agents, or customers according to your needs in South Korea – all arranged by Delaware's in-country trade representative.
- Interpreter to accompany you on business meetings.
- Preparation session and in-country briefing by State of Delaware South Korean trade representative. On-site assistance provided by Global Delaware staff and our in-country trade representative.
- Debrief session upon return to assess any follow-up assistance required.
- The State of Delaware is covering all these costs valued at $6,500 per company.

Who Can Participate?

- Delaware businesses with physical operations in the State of Delaware who meet the qualifying criteria may apply to participate in the trade mission.
- Leading industry sectors identified are: Chemicals, and information technology, however, Delaware businesses in all sectors are encouraged to participate.

June 13-17, 2016

Cost and Details

The cost of participation is $500. Delaware businesses are responsible for their own air, hotel, meals, and incidental expenses.

Companies that have been selected for the trade mission will be sent an official registration form.

A passport with at least 6 months of validity following dates of travel is required for travel to South Korea.

Funding Assistance

The State of Delaware provides limited funding assistance for qualifying Delaware businesses seeking to export. Please see our website for details and an application at: <http://de.gov/ExportMoney>.

State assistance may be used to offset up to 50% of eligible expenses; including your international travel. Funds are based on availability.
